Mr. Egerton

We the Senior Class of 1959

Nightingale

Dedication

Because of his never-ceasing, never-tiring effort, we have been able to conquer the obstacles that confronted us. He understood our problems, and with patience helped us face each of them.

For the many hours he so unselfishly gave to us, for the lasting confidence he had in us, we are deeply indebted.

With sincere respect, love and gratitude, we, the Senior Class of Rex Hospital School of Nursing, dedicate this 1959 NIGHTINGALE to Mr. Charles Gilliam.

A NURSE'S PRAYER

I dedicate myself to Thee
O Lord, My God! This work I undertake
Alone in Thy great name, and for Thy sake.
Take them, mine eyes, and teach them to perceive
The ablest way each sick one to relieve Guide Thou my hands, that e'en their touch may prove
The gentleness and aptness born of love.
Bless Thou my feet, and while they softly tread .
May faces smile on many a sufferer's bed,
Touch Thou my lips, guide Thou my tongue,
Give me a word in season for each one.
Clothe me with patient strength all task to bear,
Crown me with hope and love, which know no fear
And faith, that coming face to face with death
Shall e'en inspire with joy the dying breath
All through the arduous day my actions guide
All through the lonely night watch by my side.
So shall I wake refreshed, with strength to pray:
"Work in me, through me, with me, Lord, this day!"

Class History

The day was August 29, 1956. The Rex Hospital School of Nursing enrolled fifty-six girls exuberant with anticipation. The heavy schedule and the many enjoyable activities kept us occupied and soon all feelings of homesickness faded into the background.

Along with the title pre-clinicals, we received our uniforms and wore them proudly. After many weeks of practicing on "poor old Mrs. Chase" in Nursing Arts, we began working on the wards.

Following nine long months of theory and clinical practice, we received our caps on June 1, 1957, at White Memorial Presbyterian Church. We regretfully remembered sixteen girls who had returned home and did not have the chance to share that wonderful experience with us. The summer meant more work for us on the wards and each day we tried a little more to become better nurses.

As autumn approached, we became Juniors. This was an interesting year as we remember those days on special services; such as the Diet Kitchen, Operating Room, Recovery Room, and Obstetrics. We enjoyed planning the Junior-Senior Banquet and Dance. It was amazing how we made money sponsoring a movie, white elephant sale, and the sock hops.

In the fall of 1958, we received our black bands, classifying us as Seniors. For some this was the beginning of their affiliation at State Hospital, while others were venturing in the Emergency Room, the Out-Patient Clinic and Pediatrics.

The day was June 5, 1959, graduation day. Forty-six girls marched down the aisle of Occidental Life Insurance Building to receive their diplomas. This was the day which all of us had anticipated for many years, but we all realized it would soon be a memory.

As we look back over the past three years of our lives, no one can say that this experience has not been difficult. Like all worth-while things, the cost seems little when compared with self-realization which has made it possible.

Respectfully submitted,
Melba Farrow, Historian

Class Poem

The world grows better day by day
Because some nurse in her own little way,
Strives to meet with deeds of cheer,
The needs of her patients far and near.

This nurse is bright and quick of mind,
A well rounded person as you will find.
The ready and life smile on her face,
Cheering the patient and the whole human race.

On medicine pills and cream she's an expert,
Then surgery and the best of patient treatment.
Or pediatric she's a mother to every girl and boy,
A chief assistant to bring that bundle of joy.

In the emergency room she's expected to know,
The operating room proves to be a challenge to go.
Psychiatry tells her there's a time for all things,
A little time for laughter, a little time for things.

As you can tell by these few verses,
Few people compare to these hospital nurses.

Last Will and Testament

In this year of 1959, we the Senior Class of Rex School of Nursing, being of sane mind and body, bequeath the following articles in the manner named below.

ARTICLE I

To Miss Cheek, Mrs. Hitchcock, and Miss Collie, we leave our thanks for their capable guidance during the past three years, and a bottle of Gelusil for the ulcers we have caused.

ARTICLE II

To the faculty, we leave our model conduct, undivided attention and clever remarks.

ARTICLE III

To the doctors who love us so, we leave nothing, for we gave all we had.

ARTICLE IV

To the head nurses, we leave all medications, messy charts, narcotic keys, and ability to never request time.

ARTICLE V

To the night supervisors, we leave our box lunches so they may feast in style.

ARTICLE VI

To the aides and orderlies, we leave, so they may get that long rest they so well deserve.

ARTICLE VII

To the rising Seniors, we leave our ability to pull one month of pm night duty.

ARTICLE VIII

To the rising Juniors, we leave all our good grades in hopes that they won't have to observe closed study.

ARTICLE IX

Barbara Axelberg and Anita Beck leave sharing a diploma, since they have shared everything else!

Jo Anne Baker leaves her popularity with the opposite sex to anyone who can make good use of it.

Sandra Bloomquist and Rosabelle Mangum leave as quietly as they spent their last year here.

Nancy Boyette leaves her love for parties to Martha Mote.

Sylvia Boyd leaves her mischievous doings and innocent reactions to Jean Linthicum.

Sue Britt leaves her ukelele to anyone who can make as much noise during "campus-ed life" as she did.

Willa Conant leaves her ability to knit socks to anyone with time and patience.

Ruth Council leaves the Air Force to anyone who can stand the long lonely nights.

Jean Dail leaves her love for sleep and more sleep when class time is near to Sylvia Farmer.

Rosemary D'Angelo leaves her 5-day reducing diet to Pat Mulcaha.

Linda Dickens leaves for more excitement.

Janice Dunn leaves her spot on the basketball court to Joyce Johnson.

Glenda Edge leaves her high food bill to Mr. Gilliam in hopes that Rex has enough money to pay it.

Judy Evans leaves her poodle to Betty Cobbs.

Ann Faison leaves State College and all the fun with it to all students.

Melba Farror leaves her ability to sing "Oh, What A Beautiful Morning" at 6:00 a.m.
to the Freshman Glee Club.

Lynn Fowler leaves for David.

Helen Gay leaves to begin housekeeping all over again.

Cathy Hamm, Margie Hall, Ann Williams, Myrtle Henderson, and Marion Mann will their love for married life to all engaged Juniors.

Gloria Herring leaves to see the world through a porthole.

Arleen Lloyd leaves for the Army.

Nancy Holt and Nancy Matthews leave their love for Williams Hall to all affiliating students.

Betty Melton and Helen Mullen leave their love for sewing to Jobie Sanders.

Kay Pendergraph leaves her ability to wait---to anyone willing.

Judy Smithwick wills her love for dancing to Cynthia Bryan.

Jackie Mills leaves!!!

Carol Spivey leaves her witty remarks to Kay Taylor.

Marilyn Stroud and Vikki Teague leave closed study---they have had their share.

Betty Sugg leaves the "black chevi" to anyone with patience enough to start it.

Helen Sutton leaves-----since all her roommates have!

Doris Thornton leaves her 90 pounds to Martha Tripp.

Ann Watson leaves her intellect to the needy Freshmen.

Cathy Wood leaves her artistic abilities to Judy Barham.

We, the Seniors of 1959, declare this to be our Last Will and Testament----- it's not much, but it's all we have!!

Class Prophecy

The sun was shining and a breeze was blowing on the morning of June 6, 1964, as I stepped aboard a T.W.A. airliner at the Raleigh-Durham Airport. Soon I would be returning to my home in the sunshine state of Florida. As the plane glided down the runway I settled back for a long ride. Up into the sky we climbed and leveled out onto a soft blue velvet carpet. My mind began to wonder as I looked around in that wide open space.

Sprinkled around on the blue carpet the clouds formed tiny white caps---- white caps. The words kept ringing in my mind as I remembered the anticipated day back in Nurses' Training when we received those precious white caps.

Last night I attended a five year reunion of my graduating class at Rex Hospital School of Nursing, and was now well filled in on all the events of the past years.

Rosemary D'Angelo is owner and manager of a Spaghetti House up in the Bronx, New York. Reservations have to be made months in advance.

The former Jo Anne Baker surprised us all by finally marrying Felton after three previous engagements. Maybe she isn't so fickle, after all.

Ruth Council entertained us with an aura from an opera in which she starred two weeks previously. There were many other celebrities among my former classmates. Nancy Boyette was awarded the Pulitzer Prize for her novel, So Tall. Cathy Wood was so excited about the opening of her art gallery where she is featuring her latest painting, "Angel's of Mercy." Escorted by her husband, Nancy Holt was wearing an exquisite gown which she designed. She's putting Dior out of business. Carol Spivey has taken Broadway by storm because of her magnificent performance in "The Wit". Also from the literary world, the former Judy Evans told us she takes time out from her busy family schedule to write an "Advice to the Lovelorn Column."

A few of us remained faithful to the old alma mater. Margie Hall is now working for Drs. Hamilton and Neal, and Myrtle Henderson raved about her new position as Dr. Valone's favorite scrub nurse. Marion Mann is Supervisor in the OR and Melba Farrow is new President of the Rex Alumni Association. Her platform was no 3-11 for students. Sue Britt retired from the nursing profession to manage her Raleigh factory which produces hair nets since the new Director of Nurses' at Rex, Cathy Hamm, requires all students to wear them.

Several girls settled down to married life. Kay Yates and Jacque Smith are living in Apex and increasing the population by leaps and bounds. Gloria and George Herring were showing off their three-year old future seaman. Peggy Abernathy, Phyllis Gahagan, Jane Smith spent a great deal of time discussing the antics of healthy 6 and 7 year olds and their favorite pediatricians. Ann Watson and Ralph were recently married and started house keeping with a well stocked hope chest. Ann Williams and Helen Gay have additions to their families and are living a life of leisure as homemakers. Rosa Mangum arrived with a new car--seems she decided to get her drivers' license.

Glenda is married after three years of being pinned and an extended engagement. She's looking forward to moving to South America where Fred will be working. Lynn and Helen, Fowler and Sutton to us, were there with their new husbands. After years of indecision, they roped two millionaires from Texas. The former Helen Mullen is doing supervisory work in a Texas hospital while she waits for Jerry to come in from flights. Willa and Max were enthusiastic about their trip to Europe where they visited relatives and Tremilla and Roger Newby. Roger's still faithful to Uncle Sam and is enjoying his tour of duty in France. I was so happy to hear that Arleen Lloyd had received the "Purple Heart" for bravery beyond the call of duty, Judy Smithwick, overcome by her love for the sea, has a position on the famous "Queen Mary". Ann Faison retired and moved to California. Five years on Third East was too much for her.

All of us didn't leave the good Ole' North State. Sandra and Roy decided they liked N.C. better than Delaware. Nancy Matthews is industrial nurse at Leggett-Meyers in Durham. No more cigarette worries.

Janice and John Dunn decided to make their home in Bear Grass. She's head basketball coach there. Vikki and Jobie are back in Waynesville where Vikki is knitting little socks and is the perfect picture of a "lady in waiting". Betty and Edwin are married but still enjoying those fabulous week-ends at Carolina. Linda and Dorisanne share an apartment in Raleigh. They are both sporting beautiful engagement rings and just bubbling over with wedding plans.

Barb and Anita were unable to attend the reunion since they pooled their resources and took that long awaited trip to Bermuda.

The plane tilted a little and I was brought back to reality by the voice of the airline hostess, Sylvia Boyd, reminding me to fasten my seat belt. As I saw the ground slowly coming up to meet us the beautiful white caps took their places in the back ground.

Miss Rex

How do I admire thee?
 The reasons fall from my lips
 I admire thee for thy beauty of face
 I admire thee for thy movements of grace
 Thy loving kindness, tender care
 The faith you place in fervent prayer
 Inspires me to a height I never dreamed of coming near
 You set your sights in Heaven and by a star
 you steer
 I see thy neatness, thy efficient ways
 Thy cheerful smile which lifts the haze
 Of loneliness and pain upon the halls
 Thy quiet confidence which never falls.
 My admiration rises when I see
 The friendliness you show to ones like me
 And yet you set example for us, too,

And I suppose
 You have your times of loneliness and fear
 But it never shows
 And thy purpose always seems quite strong and clear.
 How do I admire thee?
 As an ideal nurse
 Thy qualities are such that we
 Pay tribute on this night to thee
 By giving unto thee the name
 That in our realm of life means fame
 Miss Rex, our Queen of Hearts,
 Our maiden fair.

One to grow on . . .

Good health is our business. We take a deep personal pride in watching the growth and development of youngsters raised on Pine State's good, health-giving milk and dairy foods. We feel great satisfaction in the knowledge that we contribute to the growth of the community as we do to the growth of its citizens.

We're proud of the fact that we're growing, too . . . that more and more families are asking for Pine State's pure, delicious milk, ice cream and other fine dairy foods.
